

MAE

michigan association for evaluation
local affiliate of the American Evaluation Association

Thomas Allen Jones Scholarship Application

Tom attended the University of Michigan on a music scholarship and proudly played "The Victors" on the tuba in the university's renowned marching band. With his brother Dan, he founded The New Wolverine Jass Band, which played many a Saturday night gig at Ann Arbor's Old Heidelberg. With a Master's Degree in Social Work in his back pocket, Tom began a remarkable 46 year career with the State of Michigan. No one can recount how many hats he wore during that time. A sometimes speech writer for Governor Milliken; project evaluation consultant; alumnus of the Health Systems Management Program at the Graduate School of Business Administration, Harvard University; lead author of Michigan's first Health Maintenance Organization legislation; Executive Director, by appointment of the governor, to the State Planning Council for Developmental Disabilities; Director, Model Life Services Project; Human Resources Manager for the Department of Labor and Economic Growth Rehabilitation Services; private consultant; co-author of numerous academic papers; and frequent conference speaker.

In honor of Tom's remarkable career, character, and service to the Michigan Association for Evaluation, we proudly offer the Thomas Allen Jones Scholarship.

AWARD: Registration to the MAE's 2019 Annual Conference and 1 Year MAE Membership.

WHO MAY APPLY: Any student or professional involved in evaluation.

INSTRUCTIONS: Copy the Scholarship Application Information below into an email and provide a written essay up to 1,000 words. The essay should be engaging – like Tom – and highlight the applicant's use of logic models and/or involvement with innovative programs and protocols – which were valued by Tom in his evaluation career.

Scholarship Application Information:

Copy into the body of your email application and complete.

Full Name:

Employer/School:

Address:

Email Address:

Number:

Email completed application and essay to maevaluate@gmail.com.

DEADLINE: March 15, 2019

SELECTION PROCESS: All applications will be reviewed by the MAE Board of Directors, with a final decision on the award recipient made by the MAE Board in consultation with Tom's wife, Meri Anne Stowe. If the award recipient also already registered for the annual MAE conference and/or paid for an annual MAE membership, that awardee will be reimbursed by the MAE.